IROQUOIS WILL GO TO MOLOKAI

After the arrival of the New Orleans and certain necessary transfers are made, Captain Niblack and Lieutenant Thompson and wife, J. C. Zimmerman, Slattery will go on the Iroquois to Molokai and Maui to do some buoy work and make the annual inspection of buoys and lighthouses. Buoys are to be placed at Kaunakakai, Kamalo

Captain Niblack expects to be about a week on the trip. The Iroquois will coal tomorrow morning, so as to be able to get away as soon as practicable after the arrival of the New Or-peint and Kabului.

WIRELESS FOR NAVAL STATION

The New Orleans, which is expected to arrive tomorrow, will leave her wireless instruments here for the use of U. S. S. Bear, Hamlet, San Francisco, the local naval station. Orders have been received to that effect, as the mathe New Orleans, as she is bound for the coast to go out of commission.

Shipping Notes.

Both the Ariel and Alumna got away vesterday in ballast for ports in the
